Why Thailand

- Strategic Geographic Location: Thailand is a key trading hub for Southeast Asia, and strategic centrally located within ASEAN, which offers an effortless access to a vast regional market.
- Excellent Connectivity: The 3 major international airports in Thailand connect to more than 150 international cities, with 2,000 flights to ASEAN countries and nearly 300 flights to the Middle East every month. The efficient logistics enable international buyers to access Asia's diverse markets with ease.
- World-Class Tourism: Thailand is a premier tourist destination in Southeast Asia. Bangkok offers over 100 5-star hotels and over 200 4-star hotels, providing numerous quality choices for international exhibitors and buyers.
- Favourable Trade Policy: Thailand has signed free trade agreements with 18 countries and regions, offering near-zero tariff conditions. The policy makes it easy to attract international buyers to source products freely.
